

BACK IN TIME: Joseph and Almira McKee

Buried at Logtown Cemetery, Joseph McKee was one of the first white settlers in southern Oregon. Along with his wife Almira and children, Joseph arrived in the Applegate in 1860 among a second wave of McKees. His son John M. McKee and family had already arrived in 1853. Joseph was receiving a pension from Frederick County, Virginia, for his service in the war of 1812. He was born in 1793 and died on April 19, 1870. Also buried at Logtown is Almira McKee, who was born around 1809 and died in 1882.
